New Report - Global Permit

The Global Permit report was originally designed to help institutions in Europe find other institutions with BALAI permits. These permits make transfers between facilities much quicker and easier. However, it is helpful in many regions. In the United States it can help with Captive Bred Wildlife registration reports as the permit number for the sending/receiving institution must be recorded in the annual report.

In order for a permit to be found in the report, the institution recording it must mark the Permit Scope as Global.

When running the report you must specify either a Permit Type or a Listing Authority (or both). The various dates behave as follows:

- Effective Start Date will return permits with a Start Date AFTER that date
- Effective End Date will return permits with a Start Date BEFORE that date
- Expiration Start Date will return permits with an Expiration Date AFTER that date
- Expiration End Date will return permits with an Expiration Date BEFORE that date

Include Permits set to Local Scope only applies when you are using a scope of My Institution. Checking Include no Permit Recorded will display all the mnemonics within the selected scope whether or not they have recorded a Global Permit.
