1. Original Enclosure - one of the two enclosures that were merged
2. New Enclosure Name - the name given to the new enclosure resulting from the merge
3. Merge Reason - the reason recorded for the merge
4. Merge Date From - earliest date of the merges you are searching for

It is the mission of Species360 to facilitate international collaboration in the collection and sharing of information on animals and their environments for zoos, aquariums and related organizations.

5. Merge Date To - last date of the merges you are searching for

6. Approved By - staff member who approved the merge

The screenshot shows the 'Enclosure' management window. The 'Actual Physical Me' tab is active, displaying a table of enclosure merges. A red box highlights the 'Original' column for a merge dated May 06, 2013, which contains the text 'Dog Holding, Dog House' as a hyperlink. The 'New' column for the same merge contains the text 'Dog Barn' as a hyperlink. The 'Reason' column shows 'Renovation' and the 'Approved' column is empty.

Merge	Original	New	Reason	Approved
May 06, 2013	Dog Holding, Dog House	Dog Barn	Renovation

The results grid displays the original enclosures (in red box) and the new enclosure as hyperlinks.
